Cummins Makes Strong Onslaught on President in Talk on Tariff Bill

SAYS PEOPLE WHIPPED INTO SUBMISSION

Democratic Caucus Held Up as "Invisible and Inaudible Government"

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Speaking in the senate today Cummins of Iowa protested against what he termed "executive coercion" in the framing of the tariff bill.

"Many bankers believe the legislative branch of the government should hold executive power," he said, "but it is yet to be proposed in free government that a single executive should hold legislative authority over a great people. Yet we are drifting in that direction. I doubt if there is a man in America bold enough to assert that the legislative branch of the government should be abolished; that the people should elect at stated intervals a dictator who would make and execute the laws.

"Yet it would be far better to make such a change than to tolerate the practice of executive coercion. It ought to humiliate all when they look around and find people generally understand this as a surrender of rights and privileges. It is very human to deride any body of men who are lacking in the courage to assert themselves and are whipped by a master hand into submission.

Cummins denounced the Democratic caucus, declaring it constituted "not only an invisible but an inaudible government, whose operation denied the most sacred rights of the people." He announced that he intends to oppose the Underwood bill as a whole.

DIVORCES EXCEED MARRIAGE LICENSES IN LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles Times: For the first time in the history of the local courts the divorce applications exceeded the marriage licenses issued yesterday. Nineteen divorce suits were filed and sixteen licenses issued. The turning of the scale in favor of those tired of domestic infidelity created a sensation at the courthouse, for hitherto the best—or worst—record has been eleven divorces suits. The marriage licenses average thirty a day, and frequently run up to forty.

Los Angeles courts are now the busiest west of Cook county, Ill. In every department there has been a rapid increase in the number of civil suits set for trial. The divorce court presided over by Judge Monroe, is not the easiest in the country, for men and women seeking freedom from mates in whom they are disappointed. The judge is recognized as a deep investigator, and little escapes his keen eyes.

The increase in divorces is believed to be due to the large number of persons from the east who come here to establish a residence, but in almost every instance decide to make their permanent home here. They are weeded out when they come before Judge Monroe.

FINISH BOULEVARD TO COUNTY LINE IN THE NEXT SIXTY DAYS

LONG BEACH, July 19.—Supervisor Hinchaw, speaking to a gathering of east side citizens, told them that the boulevard between Long Beach and Bay City, connecting with the Orange county boulevard to Santa Ana would be completed in sixty days. The supervisors are also getting bids for boulevarding Anaheim road, between Wilmington and Long Beach, and also for one and one-eighth miles on the same thoroughfare, west of Temple avenue.

FILED $50,000 SUIT FOR ALIENATION OF AFFECTIONS
SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—Charging General Agent Phil K. Gorden of the Sunset Route with improper relations with his wife, Arthur A. Beck today filed a $50,000 damage suit alleging alienation of affections.

Mulhall III, Senate Probe Is Adjourned

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The Senate lobby probers held no session today. Mulhall was reported by physicians to be on the verge of a nervous breakdown, and was excused for the day by Chairman Overman. In executive session the committee considered the books and accounts of the National Association of Manufacturers and the National Council for Industrial Defense.

TO FATHER SUFFRAGE MEASURE

Assured Will Offer Constitutional Amendment When Tariff Bill Disposed Of

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Senator Ashurst of Arizona announced today that he will move in the senate to consider a woman's suffrage amendment to the federal constitution immediately after the tariff bill is disposed of.

"The amendment may be debated three or four months," Ashurst said. "The advantage of letting the matter go slowly is the fact that elections are approaching. Every member of congress would therefore hesitate before voting openly against such a matter. Supposing the vote comes as late as March, how many experienced politicians would go on record against such a measure just before entering the primaries in their home districts?"

Ashurst is a member of the woman's suffrage committee. He has charge in the senate of the proposed amendment.

CARDINAL GIBBONS EXPECTS CALL SOON

BALTIMORE, July 19.—Cardinal Gibbons today said:

"On next Wednesday I shall be 79 years old," and then he added, "I do not think that I will live much longer. My life is nearly spent. I will soon be an octogenarian and nature must take its course. Almighty God has blessed me with a long life and I am ready to answer whenever He sees fit to call me to render an account of my stewardship.

"I think that it will not be long now," he continued, "and when the call comes I think it will be a sudden one. We should all be ready for the call, because we don't know how soon or sudden it may come."

When asked if he was not in good health, Cardinal Gibbons answered: "Yes, I still feel young and capable of performing several more years of service, but I think I will soon pass away. Perhaps I might live ten years longer—we are never sure. I still feel young. You know it is our soul that makes us young or old. If our soul be young though our body be as old as Methuselah, we are young indeed."

HEAT WAVE MOVES TO EASTERN COAST

CHICAGO, July 19.—The heat wave torturing the middle west moved eastward today. Temperatures of over 100 were reported from various Atlantic coast summer resorts. In Missouri and Kansas the temperature dropped to 85 to 90 degrees. It is cool here and cooler weather is predicted for tomorrow over the middle west.

Strenuous Conditions as Result of Attack by Sailors on I. W. W. Quarters
Central Committee Officials Indorsed Congressman Kettner's Choice

SEATTLE, July 19.—Following last night's riots in which two Industrial Workers of the World and Socialist halls were wrecked by a mob led by sailors, Mayor Cotterill today assumed the powers granted by the city charter in case of riots and took personal charge of the police. He ordered all saloons closed. He forbade street meetings for the next two days, except of a religious character. He notified the editor of the Seattle Times that it must either suspend publication for two days or submit for censorship proofs of all matter to be published.

INJUNCTION GIVEN AGAINST MAYOR'S ORDERS

SEATTLE, July 19.—Judge Humphries granted a temporary injunction against Mayor Cotterill's order to the Seattle Times to either cease publication for two days or submit its editorial matter to censorship. Cotterill believes the Times' reports might incite to further riot. Saloonmen are trying to secure an injunction against the mayor's order to close all saloons during the trouble. The commander of the warships here has announced that he will not curtail the usual shore leave of their men tonight. Further trouble is feared as a result.

Cotterill will resist the injunction granted to Col. A. J. Bletten preventing the suppression of the Seattle Times. The Times office is surrounded by a cordon of police, but no attempt has been made to prevent people entering or leaving the Times building. The mayor stated, however, that he would be governed by the corporation counsel's advice regarding the injunction, immediately after the police appeared at the building. Preparations are being made to prevent further trouble tonight. Extra police will prevent street meetings or street processions.

CITIZENS JOINED WITH SAILORS IN THE RIOT

SEATTLE, Wash., July 19.—Crowds of sailors from the Pacific reserve fleet, at anchor in the bay, aided by hundreds of men and boys who came downtown to join in the Potlatch celebration, attacked the Socialist and Industrial Workers of the World headquarters last night, sacking the buildings and dumping the furniture in the streets.

Two distinct parties made the attack. The first, in the northern part of the business district, wrecked the Socialist headquarters, near Fifth avenue and Virginia street.

The second, in the southern part of the downtown section, attacked the Industrial Workers of the World headquarters, dumping the furniture into the street and making a bonfire of it.

A provost guard of fifty men sent ashore from the ships to quell the disorder, but at 10:30 200 yelling civilians, headed by a dozen man-of-war's men, carrying aloft the Stars and Stripes, paraded down Fourth avenue from Pike street, the center of the night life of the city, toward Washington street, where most of the Industrial Workers of the World congregated.

The sailors after destroying the moderate Socialist headquarters at Seventh and Olive, marched to the southern part of the city and demolished a meeting room of the Salvation Army, which somebody had told the sailors was an Industrial Workers' meeting place.

FLIES CAUSE NINE CASES OF TYPHOID
SACRAMENTO, July 19.—City Health Officer Lindsay has reported that after investigations he is convinced the deadly house fly was directly responsible for nine cases of typhoid fever, which originated in a boarding house recently.

All the patients, boarders, were taken ill about the same time.

"I have investigated all other angles and can find no other cause than flies, which, I presume, went from the basement, into which a cesspool had overflowed, to the table, depositing the germs on the food," said Dr. Lindsay.

NEW FRENCH AEROPLANE ROOSTS LIKE A BIRD

PARIS, July 19.—The French aviator, Louis Bleriot, announces successful trials of an aeroplane that alights like a bird on a stretched cable or along a ship's side. The aircraft attaches itself by means of a mechanical device.

BELLINGHAM, Wash., July 19.—After holding Shaw Island for a week against the combined forces of fifty American and Canadian officers, the Vancouver Island bandit, one of the pair robbing a bank messenger near Nanaimo, B. C., has escaped, and no trace has been found of him although posses are searching. The man is still unidentified.

A skiff rowed by one man was seen leaving the island late Wednesday. Although the American revenue cutter Arcata searched the waters two days it found no trace. The rewards were renewed today and an additional hundred men are searching. The robbery occurred July 3.

ANAHEIM BOY DROWNED YESTERDAY AT BALBOA

Son of A. A. Mills Goes Down While Sister Sits Helpless in Boat Crying for Help

Prescott Mills, aged 14, of Anaheim was drowned in Newport Bay at Balboa yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. The boy was a good swimmer and diver. He dived from a boat in which his sister, Miss Irene Mills and Miss Mary Owens were seated. Coming to the surface the boy cried out, "Hurry! Help!" He sank beneath the surface and did not again come up. His body was recovered three hours later.

The boy was the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Mills of Anaheim and a nephew of Mrs. J. J. Zielan of Santa Ana. His father is a prominent rancher of the Mother Colony, a man well known in publicity and Board of Trade matters. Prescott was his eldest son, and a boy known in the schools at Anaheim as unusually bright and faithful.

Yesterday Prescott went to Balboa with several members of the family to attend the picnic of the Presbyterian Sunday schools of Anaheim and Fullerton. He secured a bathing suit and went out in a boat with his sister, Miss Irene Mills, two or three years his elder, and Miss Mary Owens, also of Anaheim.

Prescott dived from the boat several times, and seemed to be swimming as strongly as usual. He was known to be a good swimmer, and the girls with him had not the least worry concerning his safety. On his last dive, Prescott stood up at the end of the boat and dived off. By some it is thought that the boy struck bottom, the water being ten or twelve feet deep at that point, and others think it likely that in coming up he struck his head on the bottom of the boat.

The boy barely came to the surface and cried out. The girls did not even have time to throw him an oar or make any effort to reach him before he sank from sight, and was not seen again alive.

The cries of the girls soon brought help, and in a few minutes divers were at work searching for the body. Grappling hooks were used. It was about 7 o'clock before the body was found. Efforts to revive the apparently lifeless body proved futile. The body was taken to Anaheim last night and today Coroner Wimbler took the statements of several witnesses. No formal inquest was held.

The accident occurred ten or fifteen yards off the shore about 100 yards east of the Balboa pavilion.

POMERENE CLAIMS WINE TAX WILL HELP THE GROWERS

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Senator Pomerene will contend on the floor of the Senate, when he speaks on his sweet wine amendment, that the wine producers of California are at present paying for grapes at prices below their value and that the taxing of grape brandy entering into the fortifying of sweet wines will hurt the producers, if at all rather than the grape growers. This was made clear when Mayor J. E. Lawrence of Lodi, representing the Grape Growers' Association of Lodi, interviewed the Senator in an attempt to have him withdraw from his position in adding a tax of something like $6,000,000 a year to the burden the wine industry of California will have to bear.

Mayor Lawrence explained the grape and wine industry at length to Senator Pomerene who asked many questions and sought to show that the wine makers arbitrarily fix a price for grapes below that which the business would justify, and that the vintners are so well in control of the situation that they have practically no competition for the lower quality of grapes, left after the best quality is shipped for table use and marketed at good prices.

The Senator did not show any disposition to modify his stand on the amendment taxing spirits used in fortifying sweet wines, and which will, the wine men say, ruin their business.

LONG BEACH WILL MAKE REFUND ON RELIEF DONATIONS

LONG BEACH, July 19.—For perhaps the first time on record money given by private individuals for donations to relief work is being returned to the donors. Today the relief committee announced it was all ready to return to 375 donors the sum of $173.67, which they donated for the relief of the persons injured in the Empire day disaster. The money will be returned in checks, which range in size from 10 cents to $64.65. All money given anonymously will be turned over to some charitable institution. The relief committee has requested all persons who contributed to the relief fund to call at its headquarters in the First National Bank building to claim their money between the hours of 1 and 4 each afternoon.

ATROCITIES IN BALKAN WAR

Reports Almost Past Belief Apparently Confirmed by Official Inquiries

MASSACRES KILL MORE THAN BATTLE

Persistent Rumors That Bulgarian King Has Fled Are Officially Denied

ATHENS, July 19.—The Austrian consul at Seres has verified King Constantine's charges of massacres, rapine and looting by Bulgarian troops. He declared his own wife was dishonored by Bulgars in the presence of scores of persons.

The special investigator sent to Seres also verifies the reported atrocities there. He says on the evening of the last day of the massacre the Bulgarian troops found eighty girls and women hidden in a warehouse. The girls were assaulted, the women covered with oil and burned.

Investigators say the atrocities are unparalleled. The victims reach thousands, and the property losses are estimated at $20,000,000.

AUSTRIA EXPECTS TO MAKE INVESTIGATION

VIENNA, July 19.—The Austrian foreign office will probably investigate the claim by the Austrian consul at Seres that the Bulgarian troops outraged his wife, later holding him a prisoner. The consul escaped.

Blood-curdling stories of atrocities on both sides of the Serbian-Bulgarian campaign are arriving here. It is claimed more persons were massacred than fell in battle. Bulgaria is believed to be fighting in the last ditch, with resources and soldiers exhausted.

Persistent reports that King Ferdinand has fled from the capital are current. These reports are consistently denied by the various foreign legations.

Report of King's Flight

LONDON, England, July 19.—The Brussels correspondent of the Chronicle hears from an exceptional well-informed source that King Ferdinand of Bulgaria is in flight. News to the same effect has also been received in Paris, where it is stated that the King has made a hurried flight with the Crown Prince Boris. Inquires here have failed to confirm the Brussels report. The Bulgarian legation discredits it. A Vienna dispatch says that Queen Eleanor of Bulgaria and her suite have unexpectedly arrived at Ernsthart, a castle in Lower Austria, the property of her nephew, the Prince of Reuss, but an official denial of this is given.

Statement From Belgrade

BELGRADE, July 19.—The war office has issued an official statement charging the Bulgarian troops with many massacres. It is asserted reports of these occurrences have been confirmed. It is declared that Serbian soldiers were brutally tortured, the bones of the wounded broken, eyes gouged out, and scores burned alive.

Russia Calls Halt

VIENNA, July 19.—It is unofficially reported that Russia has notified Turkey that the further advance of Turkish troops on Adrianople will not be tolerated.

$400,000 FIRE LOSS AT SHERIDAN, ORE.

SHERIDAN, Ore., July 19.—Fire starting in a small restaurant and raging throughout the night was extinguished today after damage amounting to $400,000. The fire apparatus from every surrounding town was requisitioned.

There were no casualties. Thirty buildings were destroyed.

SENATE STARTS TARIFF BILL TALK

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Debate on the tariff bill opened in the senate this afternoon. It is expected to continue several weeks.

Simmons of North Carolina, chairman of the senate finance committee, was the first speaker. He asserted the tariff bill is a fair, just interpretation of the will of the people, and a fulfillment of Democratic platform pledges.

COUNTY

New Churches Built in Three Cities, and a New One Started in Santa Ana

The year 1913 is proving to be the biggest year in the history of the county for the erection of big public and semi-public buildings. This work is not confined to any one city or two cities. It seems to be a part of the general forward movement that has characterized Orange County for months past.

Fullerton has just finished a fine new $200,000 polytechnic high school and voted $50,000 for grammar schools. The Baptist congregation of that city has a splendid new church home, and the Catholics of Fullerton have constructed a handsome church building.

Anaheim was a year ahead with its polytechnic high school, which cannot be put in the 1913 improvements, but the Mother Colony has a new church or two.

Orange is up and coming. Contractors are busy on two buildings to be added to the high school group.
These buildings will cost $100,000, and will give the community excellent high school facilities. The First Presbyterian Church of Orange moved into its new $20,000 church this spring, and the Lutherans have let a contract for a new $25,000 church, which will be built within the next few months.

Huntington Beach has its project for a fine new municipal concrete wharf well under way.

County Seat

Now for the county seat. Santa Ana has been doing its share or more. Contractors are at work on the new high school buildings, which will cost $200,000, and which will be ready for occupancy in the early fall.
These buildings alone are a notable feature of the year's activities. However, the year opened up with the completion of the new Spurgeon grammar school.

It would be a poor year indeed in Santa Ana that did not bring forth a big new church building. This year the Baptists are the ones to keep the record up. The old building on the corner of Main and Church streets has been torn down, and excavation is now under way for a new $30,000 church building.

County Hospital

The county has commenced the development of its county farm. Several cottages have been built. On Aug. 5 bids will be received for the construction of a fine new county hospital on the county farm. This building will be of concrete, and will cost probably $40,000.

Street Paving

This is a big year in the street paving business. Orange has just finished a campaign in which many of the principal streets were paved with a heavy concrete-asphalt pavement.
Fully $90,000 was spent in the improvement of the streets. Anaheim has just let a contract for a big job on its main cross-street. Fullerton is doing street improvement that reaches into the tens of thousands of dollars. Santa Ana has had a street paving crew busy for about a year, and not only have several streets had asphaltic concrete paving put down, but there is four or five times as much more in sight to be done in the next few months.

Constipation

GOOD BUILDINGS PAY BEST SAYS ONE MASTER BUILDER

Build for strength and durability.
Build for beauty.
Build for the future.
Build with civic pride as an incentive.
Build with a due regard to your neighbor's welfare.
Build with realization and appreciation and recognition of aesthetic values.

Such, in brief, are the admonitions of one of Santa Ana's master builders, C. M. Jordan.

"It always pays," said Mr. Jordan, in an interview, "to put up a good building. And when I use the term
'a good building' I mean not merely strong, durable construction, but a building that looks good—that is a building that is good to look at, one that you'll be proud of and that will jar loose your neighbor's spirit, of emulation.

"In building a residence, of course the matter of cost is often governed by the owner's financial ability; but it will always pay him, not only in comfort and pleasure but in dollars and cents, if he ever comes to sell or rent his house, to strain a point financially and get above shoddy materials or workmanship. If a man is financially able to do so he owes it to himself and his family and to his neighbors and the entire community to build a handsome and substantial home, in harmony with his environment and the possibilities of their improvement, and adequate for all the physical and spiritual needs of himself and family.

"In business buildings, of course, it is more a mere matter of business.
The owner must see interest on his investment. And that's exactly where good construction comes in strong.

RAIN BRINGS RELIEF FROM DESERT HEAT

SAN BERNARDINO, July 19.—After a week of heat, ranging from 114 degrees to 123 degrees, rain is bringing relief to the Mojave desert. Heavy rains fell yesterday in the mountains and down the desert slope, breaking the torrid weather. Heat prostrations on the desert have been numerous, miners and smelter workers and crews on railroad trains, suffering. A Mexican succumbed to the heat in the Needles smelter.

Today the mountains surrounding San Bernardino valley are banked with storm clouds, and flashes of lightning tonight indicate the storm is raging on the distant peaks and over the range on the desert.

WHITTIER'S BROOK IS ABOUT TO GO DRY

EAST HAVERHILL, Mass., July 29.— Whittier's Brook, the trickling waterway at the birthplace of John Greenleaf Whittier, in this town, made famous in "The Barefoot Boy" poem of the famous New England poet, is on the verge of running dry, as a result of the long continued drought.

Unless there comes a heavy rain to swell the tiny stream there is promise of this spot drying up altogether, and those pilgrims who stop to drink of the clear water where Whittier drank in his boyhood days must suffer disappointment.

IMPERIAL VALLEY QUAKE DOES SLIGHT DAMAGE

EL CENTRO, July 19.—An earthquake, severe in the valley, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon shook the walls of the First National Bank, cracked numerous windows in Hotel Oregon and other buildings, did slight damage to buildings in Imperial and Tioville. People oed from their homes into the streets. Two distinct shocks of four minutes duration were recorded.

GIRLS VOLUNTEER TO FIGHT MOUNTAIN FIRES

Los Angeles Examiner: A group of well-known girls of Southern California, who are spending the vacation period in the vicinity of Mt. Wilson, have joined with the mountain girls in forming a Woman's Volunteer Company of Forest Rangers, to assist the regular government and state forest rangers in guarding against mountain fires, under the instruction of George Kelley, state fire warden.

The young women are daily being instructed in the most modern and efficient methods of fighting and preventing mountain fires.

Some time ago the young women, who are staying at Mt. Wilson, Strain's Camp and other mountain resorts, decided to organize the Volunteer Forest Rangers company.
State Warden Kelley was approached by a committee representing the Volunteer Rangers, and he readily agreed to act as instructor.

The Volunteer Rangers have now become expert in the art of scientific "back firing."

The fair rangers now know how to start a back fire in such a manner that it will sweep either directly in front of an oncoming blaze or diverse either to the right or left at any angle that the fighter might desire.

Each of the young women in the company dresses in the feminine regulation mountain costume, consisting of khaki or corduroy skirt, leggings and wide-brimmed hat. A knapsack slung over the back carries a pair of blankets, drinking cup, cooking utensils and other necessities for camping in the mountains. A large knife is worn in the belt to cut away shrubbery.

One of the greatest menaces feared by mountain rangers is the smoking campfires left burning by careless campers. The young women have been instructed to arrest any person who is found leaving a camp where a fire burns.

Owing to the vigilance of the volunteer rangers, one man who had broken camp and left a campfire smoldering was arrested last week and fined the maximum amount. He offered no resistance when placed under arrest and smilingly accompanied his captors to the fire rangers' headquarters.

that there are helpful hints in the bul-

FUNERAL MASS FOR LEO XIII TOMORROW

ROME, July 19.—Cardinals and leading prelates from all parts of the world began reaching here today for the annual funeral mass which will be celebrated in the Sistine chapel of the Vatican tomorrow on the occasion of the anniversary of the death of Pope Leo XIII. A goodly portion of the diplomatic corps in Rome credited to the Vatican which had left the city for the summer, returned today for the ceremonies. The mass tomorrow will be the first one in ten years that have elapsed since the death of Pope Leo, at which the music of the famous Sistine choir will not be directed by Monsignor Perosi. The latter, for the past two months has been suffering from nervous breakdown so severe that the pontifical physicians will not permit him to resume the direction of the choir.

PRACTICAL IN HIS TEACHING

Fullerton Preacher Interests
Boys by Teaching Them
Health and Nature

A special to the Los Angeles Examiner says:

DEEP CREEK, San Bernardino Mountains, July 18.—Rev. Edward J. Statton, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Fullerton, Cal., is considered one of the most up-to-date ministers. He has devised a new way of interesting the boys of his church in the doctrines of Christianity. They are to fish and hunt properly and to climb the mountains and gain health. Up in the San Bernardino Mountains he and a party of eleven boys from the church have pitched a camp, and he is teaching them right and wrong amidst nature.

Yesterday Rev. Statton and six of the boys went fishing for trout in Holcom Creek. When the boys wanted to shoot bluejays with their rifles, he forbade them and drew an object lesson, telling them what birds to shoot and why.

During the fishing trip the other five boys took complete charge of the camp and little Kaiser Gohar, no more than four and a half feet high, cooked dinner and dealt out the food. Just before the meal he led them in a prayer of thanksgiving. The boys are taught to play properly, to watch camp, to be fair to each other, and to gain health and strength from God's green forests.

Last Sunday the boys had a Sunday school lesson on Nebuchadnezzar. They are all enjoying their trip immensely and say they have secured much uplifting benefit from it. The boys came up July 7 and will return to Fullerton Saturday, July 19. They have hiked about thirty miles up to the Deep Creek, where they erected a beautiful camp.

Some of the boys who thought they could do little in the way of swimming, will leave the mountains proud of their ability in this line.

Elmer W. Dean, father of one of the boys, accompanied the lads on the trip as a vacation, and asserts that he enjoyed it immensely.

Rev. Statton is a believer in the principle that more good can be done for the rising generation than will ever be accomplished for the present generation and he believes in teaching them through nature and by concrete example.

The party consists of William Glenn, Calvin Dean, Lester McClune, Elmer Quinn, Emory Reese, Clifford Ford, Robert Ware, Guy Longley, Virgil Smith, Donald Munger, Horace Blair, Elmer W. Dean and Rev. Edward J. Statton.

Rev. Statton has to get back to Fullerton to preach on Sunday, and, therefore, the boys will have to go back sooner than they want to. This is the first trip of its kind ever taken by the boys and has proved effective. The boys have been taught the rules of health, how to cook, how to take care of the camp and keep watch.

LAUNCHING IS SET FOR 6 P.M. TONIGHT

BALBOA, July 19.—This bay town is in gala attire for the big festivities to be held here this Saturday night, when the Balboa Navigation Company will launch its new forty-foot power boat, "Panama," followed by a water carnival.

A large crowd will witness the launching, which will take place at 6 o'clock at the next to the pavilion and will be attended by appropriate ceremonies, a bottle of California champagne being used for the christening. The boat will be used for pleasure trips in the bay.

The water carnival will follow the launching, with about sixty pleasure craft taking part. The boats will be brilliantly decorated with lanterns and will cruise about the bay. Special cars will be run by the Pacific Electric for the occasion.

REGULAR CAVALRY IN SEVERE TESTS

WINCHESTER, Va., July 19.—Two dusty brigades of regulars in full war regalia rode through here today and went into camp a few hours later in the green valleys at the foot of the hills which were the scene of the most famous and spectacular raids and smaller battles of the civil war, half a century ago. The brigades were the advance guard of a detachment of the regular cavalry which will be put through the hardest test given United States troops in years. One regiment is here from Fort Ethan Allen, Vt., and the other is from Ft. Oglethorpe. They are the Tenth, Eleventh and Fifteenth cavalry and a battery of the Sixth Field artillery. All rode almost every mile of the way on horseback.

The camp, one mile wide and two miles long, with one of the most perfect natural drill grounds, will formally open tomorrow. It is under the direct command of Col. C. H. Murray of the Twelfth cavalry, acting brigadier general. Secretary of War Garrison and Major General Leonard Wood will spend a good part of the two months the soldiers will be here, on the job. One of the most important projects to be experimented with will be the working out of the suggested new formation of charging cavalry in double ranks. The famous French cavalry, said to be the greatest body of horse soldiers in the world, has tried out the plan with great success.

How to be Happy Though Married

Before placing the biscuits in oven of gas range, heat oven about 10 minutes, then bake biscuits about 12 minutes.

Get some syrup or jelly and get busy. Life will look rosier, troubles will vanish, the stars will look like young moons, the lawn-mower will push easier, and—and—well, just try it.

THINKS EUROPE PREPARING FOR DISMEMBERMENT OF CHINA

(By William Philip Simms, Paris Correspondent to the United Press.)

PARIS, July 19.—That Europe is preparing for the dismemberment of China, Turkey-in-Asia, and the colonies of Portugal, and the ultimate division of the spoils, was the contention of former Minister of Foreign Affairs, M. Emile Leopold Florens, in a private interview given the United Press correspondent here today. This diplomat, who is credited with knowing more of European motives and policies than almost any other man, tells the reason for the monster standing armies which the Great Powers are now creating with a rapidity hitherto known only immediately preceding war. And Germany, with her confessed need for elbow-room, and despite recent eulogies sung of the "Peaceful War Lord," is given the blame for starting the ball rolling. The interview took place at the home of the statesman, and M. Florens called a spade a spade.

"At the outbreak of the Balkan troubles some months ago," said M. Florens, "I told you that a general European war was preparing for the near future. I still think so. For the moment, however, the ambitions of the Great Powers are holding them in check. They don't want war just at this time and for a very particular reason. That is why every ounce of their influence is being exerted now to prevent the Balkan difficulty from dragging them into a fight."

"Two years ago," the correspondent suggested, "the world was informed that Europe was on the verge of a general war. Americans find it hard to understand what it's all about and what is holding the powers back."

"The general squaring of accounts between the nations of Europe is coming," the diplomat replied. "You may be sure of that. Something has happened to postpone the action, that is all. The reason is this: There is shortly to be considerable territory divided, and when this begins each of the great powers wishes to be at its strongest. A war now would weaken the nations engaged, and those which kept the peace would find themselves

BIXBY IN HOSPITAL. CASE POSTPONED

LOS ANGELES, July 19.—Millionaire George H. Bixby of Long Beach charged with contributory negligence of Marie Brown Levy, as the result of the vice probe by the county grand jury, will not be tried July 24, because of serious illness and an operation performed on him yesterday afternoon at the Pacific hospital.

On representation made by Oscar Lawler, chief counsel for the Long Beach banker, Judge Oster continued the trial to September 11. Dr. W. E. Waddell, attending physician, who performed the operation, filed an affidavit with the court, stating the seriousness of the condition of the defendant and asserting that he was too ill to appear for trial on the date set.

Attorney Lawler stated that a week ago Mr. Bixby was driving on the Long Beach boulevard when his automobile struck the curb and turned over. The defendant's nose was broken and he sustained lacerations over the eye. Yesterday afternoon the nose was resectioned and reset by Dr. Waddell. Mr. Bixby last night suffered a hemorrhage, and for several days all visitors will be denied.

THAT POLITICAL MACHINE

"The unlimited possibilities of building up a huge political machine under the control of the state (compensation) Insurance Department, provided for by this act (the Boynton Compensation Act), should be a matter of deep concern to every citizen," fearfully "corrodes" (apologies to Will Irwin) the Employers' Federation now concerning itself with tying up the Boynton law by referendum petition.

About how "huge" can that "machine" be made under the act? And are the "possibilities" under the act, as "unlimited" as the federated employers pretend?

In the first place the number of salaried employees is fixed by the appropriation, and the appropriation provides for twenty-five employees for the State Compensation Insurance Fund with salaries amounting to $48,840 per year. Whoever else is employed must be paid by, or out of, commissions received for business done.

All the salaried employees, except the heads of departments, will be selected from civil service lists and may be Republicans, Democrats, Progressives or Socialists, dependent upon who makes the best showing at the examinations.

The statute requires the clerk and the treasurers of every county, city and county or city to act as agents for the state fund to receive and forward applications for insurance. These officials are elected by the people in their respective communities according to the political complexion of such communities, and cannot be made members of any political "machine" antagonistic to their own party affiliations.

There remain as components of this "huge" machine insurance agents scattered throughout the state doing business on a commission. It is possible that the State Fund may have about as many of these as any one of the other larger casualty companies and no more, for all the casualty companies will be after every available person as keenly as will the State Fund. To assume that the State Fund will require, as a condition precedent to making an agency under it, that the agent, shall do Progressive politics is absurd, and that agents fit to represent the State Fund would submit to any such conditions is ridiculous.

That is all there is to the "unlimited possibilities" of a "huge" political machine to be built up by the present administration for its self-perpetuation! Is it not rather beneath the dignity of any association that purports to be a "federation" to seek to frighten folks with so puerile a ghost as that?

NOT GUILTY

Santa Ana, Cal., July 18, 1913. Editor Santa Ana Register, City.

Sir:—Your attention is requested to a news item in last evening's Register which refers to the attack of an aged woman by a negro. In that item the word "negro" is capitalized in every instance, thus effectually bringing at once to the reader's attention the fact that the author of the crime was a negro. Why the discrimination? Other papers did not do so; why should the Register aid in the promotion of that antagonism which has caused so many race riots and lynchings?

Wishing for justice only, I subscribe,

A READER.

No "discrimination" at all Mr. "Reader"—or is it Mrs. "Reader?"

The Register quite agrees with you that it is wrong to arouse or foster race prejudice in any way, and this paper certainly desires to avoid even the appearance of doing so.

It is correct to capitalize the word Negro, which is a proper noun the same as Indian or Caucasian or Malay or Latin or Mongolian. It is the name of a race of people. Of course there are theories and practices and literary licenses which permit of its use without capitalization. But we doubt that there is ever any significance, such as you attribute, to either the capitalization or non-capitalization of the word as it appears in newspapers.

THE ADVANCE OF ARBITRATION

Apparently the controversy between trainmen and Eastern railroads will be settled through Erdman act changes. Disputes with engineers and firemen have already been settled.

DRAMA ABROAD AND AT HOME

By Beau Rialto

NEW YORK, July 19.—Rushing the season is a mild way of referring to Manager Al H. Woods, who will open the Broadway dramatic season of 1913-14 tonight with "Potash and Perlmutter" at the Cohan Theater. Woods' activity has stirred the Rialto from center to circumference, and if he has his way, time will come when the season will never close nor open, but run continuously. If Woods scores a precedent, but then, life anyway, is just a series of precedents and torch-light processions.

"Potash and Perlmutter," y' understand, is just a comedy dramatization of those Hebrew cloak and suit manufacturers, Abe and Mawruss, as drolly portrayed by that feller, Montague Glass. The mere narration of their doings has made us hold it our sides, y' understand, and if the dramatization can be any funnier, this here feller Woods can go as far as he likes, and fertig.

The "dog days," which have been more humid than New York has experienced in more than two years, have not hurt the summer season to any great extent. The roof gardens are "standing them up" nightly and other frothy shows of the strictly summer variety are meeting with unusual success. Such of the vaudeville houses as have kept open, especially those at the beaches, are doing a record business, and altogether the hot weather season has been much more successful than that of last winter.

"Next season" now is looming big on the theatrical horizon. Charles Frohman has just returned from Europe and says he has a trunkful of novelties for this fall and winter, many of them never having been produced on any stage. Abraham Erlanger also is back from the other side with a bag of new tricks, and all the other managers are talking about what "are going to do." Few of them have as yet given out any definite information, however, as to the plays they will try out early in the season.

In the meantime a binger, and some say better, crop of actors and actresses than ever before are marching upon Broadway to help the managers pull off their new stunts. Many who have heretofore booked from Chicago are coming to New York this year and the output of recruits is heavier than usual.

Hardly adjusted. An enormous advance has been made in New York garment trades through the "white protocol."

A great strike has just been averted through arbitration on the Boston elevated railway. The peace movement in industrial life has made a great march in six months.

Perhaps the United States could not adjust itself to the compulsory arbitration system of Australia and New Zealand. In that country it is theoretically agreed by all that a strike is barbarous and must not occur. The American workman values his individual liberty at a figure much above par. He would not take kindly to a court order compelling him to report at the bench.

As respects public service corporations, practically the same results are being secured through public opinion. A general railroad strike would mean death to infants deprived of milk, it would close factories and threaten famine. Both sides realize that the public would take radical reprisals against either party responsible.

In street railway operation, arbitration has not proved fully successful yet. While the public is inconvenienced if street cars stop, yet its positive suffering does not go so far. If the public will insistently demand peaceful settlement, no more street car strikes need occur.

The worst troubles occur in mills and factories. These do not stop the people's food supply, they do not make the public walk. Their worst effects are not immediately obvious. They cast a blight over general prosperity. The public should demand, just as it demands on the steam roads, that some settlement be found other than war and battle.

PACIFIC ELECTRIC GIVES RUSH ORDER FOR BLOCK SIGNALS

LOS ANGELES, July 19.—Contracts under rush orders were placed yesterday by the Pacific Electric with the Union Switch and Signal Company of Pittsburgh for the installation of automatically-operated block signals on the Venice Short Line from Vineyard Junction to Windward avenue, Venice, nine miles, and on the Pasadena Short Line between the west approach to the Los Angeles river bridge and the Indian Village, three miles.

President Shoup also announced that contracts for the installation of interlocking plants at Vineyard Junction, Ivy Junction, Watts and Lamenda Park will probably be placed within forty-eight hours. It is semi-officially understood that the Union Switch and Signal Company will also get these contracts. This company has storage yards and offices in San Francisco and always carries a large stock of standard signal devices.

The cost of these improvements is roughly put down at $200,000 with the Santa Fe bearing half the expense of the Lamenda Park work.

For Cuts, Burns and Bruises

In every home there should be a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, ready to apply in every case of burns, cuts, wounds or scalds. J. H. Polanco, Delvalle, Tex., No. 3. "Bucklen's Arnica Salve saved my little girl's cut foot. No one believed it could be cured." The world's best salve. Only 25c. Recommended by all druggists.—Advertisement.

One of the new comedies of the 1913-14 season which is likely to have an early fall production on Broadway is from the pen of Catherine Cushing, who wrote "The Real Thing" and "A Widow by Proxy." "Taken for Granted" is the title of the new piece. To have a look at their property those who have bought the play have arranged a try-out in Hartford some time this month.

The third annual convention and first international exposition of Motion Picture Art occurred a few days ago at the Grand Central Palace. There were 104 exhibits and 500 workmen made the booths for them. The exhibits included four absolutely up-to-date moving picture theaters. In them were displayed the newest types of seats, the latest styles of screens, the latest fire escape devices and the last word in perfect reels.

All the shows given by way of demonstrations were absolutely new and were free to the patrons of the exhibition. The most interesting thing to the layman was the showing of the manufacture of every detail that comprises this great moving picture business. They saw the raw material manufactured for the films; they saw the projecting machines made in every detail, from the first rivet on; they saw the rehearsals for the show; the posing for the pictures; how each film was "cut," and finally saw the finished reel upon the screen.

It has happened at last and there has already been much discussion of it, pro and con. "It" is the long-looked-for appearance of Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw on the vaudeville stage. Large posters on Hammerstein's roof bulletin boards announce that the girl who told her story in a vain attempt to give freedom to the slayer of Stanford White will appear in a dancing skit on August 4. There is now on foot a movement to prevent the performance being given in New York. Mrs. Thaw is now appearing at a London theater and she has been at a London drawing. She has lost much of the weight of a year or two ago, and now appears to be the same Evelyn in physical appearance who went through the trials of her husband as chief witness for his defense, with the exception of course, of a slightly older look about her face. It is really a question whether Mrs. Thaw will be permitted to keep her engagement here. She is reported to have commanded a salary of enormous size.

GUARDSMEN PRACTICE WITH BIG RIFLES

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—For first time since the provisional regiment of Coast Artillery Reserves, National Guard of California, has been in camp at Ft. Winfield Scott during the present target season, the men of the command were able to man the guns for service firing yesterday afternoon. After remaining on the guns from 8 o'clock in the morning until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, the fog that hung over the ocean and the entrance to the Golden Gate for four solid days, dissipated suddenly, and, taking advantage of the fact, the Fourth, Sixth, Second and Tenth companies manned Cranston's ten-inch guns, while the First, Seventh, Third and Ninth companies manned Battery Saffold's 12-inch rifles, and the service firing began.

Each company fired one shot at 6500 yards, known as testing shots, and for the purpose of trying out the velocity of the powder, which had previously been mixed by the reserves under the direction of regular officers. No record was kept of the scores made, although the observers unofficially noted that they were unusually good for test shots.

GILDED YOUTH HELD IN COUNTY JAIL

LOS ANGELES, July 19.—Behind the bars of the county jail reposes Ralph S. Ferris, a wealthy youth and son of a well-known family of Hollywood, who, the district attorney has declared, is a menace to the public, in that he has a speed mania. He will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law, according to the officials. Yesterday he spent the greater part of the day in an effort to secure $5000 bonds.

Ferris is now under $5000 bail for a pending case of manslaughter for running down and killing a school boy on February 22.

Yesterday in the city jail the youth seemed defiant of the law. He declared that he had done nothing but what other youths of his class were doing every day, and claimed he was being "picked on."

SEATTLE MAKES WAR ON EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES

SEATTLE, Wash., July 19.—It appeared certain today that the initiative will be invoked in the interests of legislation which will abolish private employment agencies in Seattle which charge fees for their services. The weeks ago today was the number of more names of the agencies which were illegally; that they have charged fees with no intention of finding work for their clients and that they have operated in underhand ways with certain employers of labor who were fighting strikes. If this legislation is secured for Seattle, an effort will be made to have the next legislature abolish private employment agencies throughout the state of Washington, and establish free bureaus under state supervision.

RURAL MAIL AUTO STRUCK BY ENGINE AT ACACIA AVENUE

Huntington Beach News: While driving his rural mail delivery auto from his home in the Vista del Mar tract Thursday afternoon to the local garage, Dennis Halley, rural mail carrier of this city, met with what narrowly escaped being a serious accident. In crossing the tracks of the Southern Pacific railroad at Acacia avenue, near Alabama avenue, his auto was struck by the motor engine of the railroad, in charge of Foreman John Grant of Westminster. Halley asserts that the railroad motor was traveling a speed of fifty miles an hour and he did not hear any alarm bell nor see the motor until it was upon him—too late to get out of its path. The hind wheel and axle of the automobile were crushed and Halley had a wonderful escape from serious injury. There is no alarm bell at the crossing and though there is no curve in the road, it is somewhat difficult for drivers of vehicles to see any distance along the railroad tracks because of an intervening fence and dwelling house.

DIVORCE REFORM COSTING RENO $1,000,000 A YEAR

WASHINGTON, July 19.—According to District Attorney William Woodburn of Reno, it is costing his home city $1,000,000 a year because Reno is no longer the mecca for divorce-seekers. But, he says, the change is worth the price.

"The idea was widespread," he said today, "that the only people in Nevada were those who were divorced or who were about to become so. Settlers kept away, and anyone going from Nevada to another state was greeted with a smirk."

"The unfortunate notoriety was continually increasing, but the change in the law which requires a one-year residence before divorce, has ended Nevada's most exploited industry."

"Reno is losing $1,000,000 a year through the flitting of the divorce colony, but it is worth the money to have the 'misfits' gone. We can go out of Nevada now without being laughed at, and our more stable industries are coming to the front and attracting permanent instead of transient residents."

SOUTH CHINA REBELS NAME A PRESIDENT

PEKING, July 19.—Leaders of the southern rebel forces issued a proclamation today announcing the appointment as president of the republic Tsen Chun-Huan, a former viceroy of Canton and Yuan Shih Kai's old enemy. Wang Chung-Wel is named foreign minister, and Cheng Hsuan-Hual finance minister. All three are considered fanatics in northern cities.

The southern rebels yesterday killed twenty officers who had remained loyal to the Peking government, including the new governor of the province of Nanchow.

Provisional President Yuan Shih Kai had a long conference with the loyal generals today and plans for the suppression of the rebellion were discussed.

"Yes," he was saying, "as a matter of fact, a man doesn't learn what happiness really is until he is married." "I'm glad you've discovered that at last," replied she, with visions of an immediate proposal. "Yes," he continued, "and when he's married it's too late."

SOCIETY

ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

Social Function Given at the Beautiful Home of Mrs. Eley

One of the most enjoyable social functions of the season was that given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Frederick Eley at her lovely home at 815 Garnsey in honor of her summer guest, Miss Blanche of Hopkinsville, Kentucky. The delightful affair was in the nature of a garden party which took place in the beautiful enclosed garden of the Eley home. Nature's own decorations of shady trees, luxuriant green grass and delicate flowers and ferns far exceeded any ornaments prepared by human hands. Hydrangeas and Shasta daisies were profusely used in adding beauty to the attractive rooms.

Whist played on tables under the cool shade of the trees with gay conversation and the pleasant splashing of the fountain made the afternoon pass all too swiftly. Delicious punch was served during the games by Misses Ramona Cleveland and Esther Johnson. At the close of the afternoon a delectable two-course luncheon was served on the card tables.

The guests present, aside from Mrs. Eley and the honoree, Miss Blanche, at yesterday's delightful party were Mesdames W. A. Beals, W. W. Cleveland, W. A. Flood, Ray Miles, R. E. Miles, W. Palmer, Roy Peterson, A. H. Pease, Will McFadden, Arnold Peck, H. M. Robertson, F. C. Rowland, Carl Strock, J. H. Turner, Clyde Walker, W. V. Whitson, J. D. Wilson, Gilbert Williamson, Clinton DeWitt, Mark Lacy, Misses Inez Cloyes, Lotta Cloyes, L. Covert, Minnie Gardner, Ethel Gardner, Hutoqua Hoesler, Ida Nay, Alice Parker, Carrie Stuttsman, Joe Tiede, Blanche Tiede, Neil Trueblood, Margaret Wakeham, Mary Wakeham, Della Wagner, Ava Wells and Rowland. The out-of-town guests were Mesdames A. R. Jeffers of Pasadena, George Easton of Los Angeles and Joe Flacus of Anaheim and Miss Blanche Easton of Los Angeles.

EVANS-WOLLASTON

With Episcopal Ring Service Popular Girl Became a Bride This Morning

With the beautiful Episcopal ring service, Miss Esther Mildred Wollaston this morning became the bride of Horace Y. Evans. The ceremony uniting the happy couple was performed at the Church of the Messiah this morning by Rev. Rufus S. Chase, rector of that church. The church was beautifully decorated with Shasta daisies and ferns. The bride, attired in a gray traveling suit, was led to the altar steps by her brother Frank. She was accompanied by the bridesmaid, Miss Harriett Wollaston, sister of the bride, dressed in a dark blue suit. At the chancel steps the party was met by Mr. Evans, who was attended by W. A. Zimmerman, president of the Orange County Savings & Trust Company, with which bank Mr. Evans holds a position. At the altar, the vows of wedlock were taken in accordance with the impressive Episcopal service.

With congratulations concluded, the happy couple were escorted to the 1619 south-bound Santa Fe train, where a merry crowd of friends and relatives showered Mr. and Mrs. Evans with rice and best wishes as a farewell to them for the ten days to be spent on their honeymoon at San Diego.

The attractive and accomplished bride is the daughter of Mrs. G. H. Wollaston of 642 Ross street. She is well known in Santa Ana, where she has lived for the last fourteen years, and her friends number all those who know her, the best test of any person's personality and charm. The bridegroom, a resident of Santa Ana for the last four years, is a capable business man, among whose associates, socially and in business life, he is popular.

On returning from their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Evans will occupy apartments on Ross street until a bungalow that is soon to be built is ready for them.

"You're in Haste"

Attorney W. H. Thomas is some traveler. If you don't believe it, just ask him about his recent trip to San Diego and wayside points.

In the first place, Mr. Thomas boarded the Pacific Electric car, No. 3445—or about that number—on last Thursday for a pleasant ride to Los Angeles, where he attended to some strictly legal business. After the busy attorney had hastily disposed of two or three sinkers and coffee, he caught a car for Santa Ana, which carried him to the Santa Fe depot, where he made a dash for the departing San Diego train, which he managed to board by the aid of the railroad on the observation coach. At Oceanside Mr. Thomas jumped off the train long enough to patch up the recent matrimonial difficulties that beset a hitherto peaceful and loving couple, and to dissuade the unfortunate husband from "blowing his head off," and also to persuade the dutiful wife into getting up in time to light the fire and fry the steak before the husband started to work in the mornings.

The kind-hearted lawyer then continued on his way to San Diego, followed by the benedictions of the happy family. Again he took the train, after attending to some legal business, and again he stopped in Oceanside, this time to discover with what success his former visit had been attended. He found everything running smoothly. Mr. Thomas returned to this city Friday afternoon.

Santa Anas at Yosemite
Mrs. Sherman Stevens, who with Mr. Stevens and their son Horace and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Utt and Miss Dorothy Utt left last week for the Yosemite Valley, writes from Camp Curry that they are having a splendid trip; that the men of the party are having fine trout fishing and that they are all looking forward with keenest anticipation to making the trip through the valley on horseback. She says they found a number of friends in camp, among them being Miss Charlotte Brown, formerly of Santa Ana but now librarian at the University of Southern California.

Happy Meeting
A very happy and unexpected meeting took place this morning on the street between J. A. Timmons of this city and John Clarkson of Winfield, Kansas. The gentlemen did not recognize each other for some time, but mutual recognition followed on the second glance. The two men were boyhood friends in the Middle West, but had not seen each other for a number of years.

Mr. Clarkson is touring the West and expects to go from here to points in the Northwest before returning to his home. Timmons says that Clarkson will return to Santa Ana, and that gentleman says he may locate here, for California appeals strongly to him.

Congress of Reforms
The Congress of Reforms to be held in Huntington Beach, Aug. 4 and 5, promises a treat for all who will avail themselves of the opportunity of attending. This meeting follows the camp meeting in the Auditorium, and there will be many who will remain over. Some good things are being prepared on the program, which will appear in full later. Rev. E. T. Lyon of the Eugene School of Chicago will deliver two addresses on the most important subject. The state officers of the W.C.T.U. will each have a part on the program, and a splendid address is expected of the state president, Mrs. Lucy Blighard. A voters' school will be held and there will be a temperance singing school. Remember the dates and come and enjoy the meeting and also an outing at the same time. Every woman in Orange county is invited to attend and as this is to be of educational value every woman will be interested.

Mission Circle Entertained
The girls of the First Missionary Circle met at the home of G. P. Hill on North Spurgeon street Wednesday evening. Miss Lucy Hill was hostess and was most helpfully assisted by her sister, Viola, who was for two years a missionary in Porto Rico. The Porto Rico curios and fine laces on display were most interesting and proved an attractive part of the afternoon's entertainment. Particularly admired was the centerpiece made by the prison girls of the island, which Miss Hill had valued at $100 by the Woman's Exchange in New York city. A number of the members of the circle had been in attendance at the International Christian Endeavor convention in Los Angeles and talked upon their notes of various sessions. The hostess served refreshments during the afternoon.

Guests of the Morrisons
The E. R. Morrison home, 620 East Seventeenth street, has been housing guests this past week. During the early part of the week cousins from Barnard, Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. Dell Morrison and Little son Bernon, visited a few days of the time they are spending in Southern California. Friday the Misses Lois and Lucille Runkle spent the day. The Runkles and the Morrisons were neighbors in Lisbon, Iowa.

—O—
Reception at Church
The reception at the First Presbyterian church Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stevenson was largely attended and was a most happy occasion.

The parlors were most beautiful with their profusion of hydrangeas and large brake ferns. Two artistic booths were presided over by young ladies from the Philaetha class of the Sunday school. Delicious punch and wafers were served.

After the social hour an excellent program of music and readings was enjoyed by the company. Then came a number of talks in hearty approval of the much loved pastor's decision to remain with this church in Santa Ana, rather than take up the seeming larger work. Each department of the church gave expression of their pleasure in his staying, through one of their prominent workers. Even the little Junior Christian Endeavorers were happy and their delight was most sweetly told in a poem spoken by Dorothy Thacker.

BEACH CITY VOTES TAX FOR ADVERTISING

Huntington Beach News: The special election held here Tuesday to decide whether or not a tax levy of fifteen cents should be made on local realty in order to create an advertising fund for the current year caused little excitement, only a small percentage of the registered vote being polled. The vote was $5 for and $6 against the levy of the special tax. The greater amount of the fund created by the tax is used by the city trustees to aid in supporting the South Coast Improvement Association, organized to advance the interests of the cities and towns of the Orange county coast.

Fullerton Tribune: Gustav Stern was returning from Venice in his auto Sunday night when the accident occurred on the Pacific Electric in which fifteen people were killed and over 150 more or less injured.

He assisted in removing the dead and injured from the wreck and tells of how a poor victim died. One man was thrown across another, both being held for nearly an hour under heavy timbers. The man on top died in great agony while lying upon the other and it was thirty minutes before his body could be removed. The man below was conscious when the other died. Mr. Stern says it was a gruesome sight—one that he will never forget.

GREAT FUND GIVEN TO FIGHT ANEMIA

Ambassador Page Announces Foundation of $100,000,000
by American Citizens

LONDON, July 19.—Ambassador Page, speaking at the banquet of the Anglo-Saxon Club in the Hotel Cecil in his honor Thursday night, after enlarging on the ruling ability of the Anglo-Saxon race, said that by the beneficence of an American citizen there had been set aside $100,000,000, the interest on which for some time would be spent on international health work, wherever the disease of anemia exists.

"When that disease has been eliminated," he said, "we shall have a different type of man to deal with in India, China, Japan, the West Indies, Central America and the Philippines. When that time comes the leadership of the world will not be so easy."

It is believed here that the donor is John D. Rockefeller.

The ambassador, however, told a newspaper man yesterday that the money was not from a single man but from a foundation which has been established by a number of wealthy men in the United States, of whose identity Ambassador Page has no information at present.

The income from the foundation is to be administered by an international health commission, one member of which is to visit England soon.

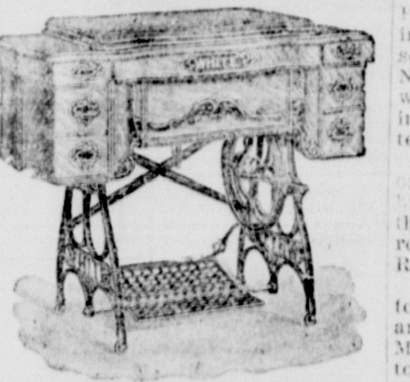

TO MANUFACTURE WIFE'S LOTIONS

Lillian Russell's Husband Quits Newspaper Game For Beauty Promotion

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 19.—Lillian Russell's husband, Alexander P. Moore, president and editor of the Pittsburgh Leader, which has for its political slogan, "For President in 1916, Theodore Roosevelt," will forsake journalism to engage in manufacturing his wife's beauty lotions, according to his friends here to whom he is said to have confided his ambition before going to Europe, where he is now spending a vacation which is to terminate in the latter part of next month. He is expected to resign of his own volition.

Moore was one of Roosevelt's publicity lieutenants in the last Presidential campaign and as Lillian Russell's husband has shared limelight with her. He has conducted a paper on militant methods, a recent example being its campaign upon Mr. Heister, who was superintendent of schools until an investigation decided he had been indirect in his actions toward women.

PLANS NATIONAL AUTO REGULATION

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Representative Knowland introduced a bill in the house providing regulation, identification and registration of automobiles engaged in interstate commerce and licensing of operators.

The purpose of the bill is to avoid annoyances and inconveniences experienced by motorists in journeying from state to state because of requirements of many of the states as to registration and licensing. It would give right of free ingress and egress in all states without further registration. It does not exempt vehicles from state police regulations governing speed.

Under the proposed act every person who desires to register an automobile will apply to the officer of public roads of the Department of Agriculture and pay a registration fee of $10. All automobiles so registered will have a distinctive number displayed in the front and rear of the auto, the number being on a metal placard in the form of a shield, in Arabic numerals. Above such would be the letters "U.S." and below the number the name of the state in which the owner resides.

Every person desiring a license to operate an automobile would, after complying with certain regulations, pay the office of public roads a fee of $5, an unmounted photograph of the applicant to accompany each application. Knowland declared many European nations have adopted a plan of international regulation certificates to meet conditions largely similar to those prevailing within the United States.

The bill was referred to the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, of which Knowland is a member.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

The Imperial Valley cantaloupe season, which is now beginning to draw to a close, has been a brisk one, as far as this city is concerned. Estimates by one local firm are that it received approximately fifty cars more than last season and two hundred cars in all. It is estimated that the consumption of Imperial melons in this city will be about 225 to 250 cars, altogether. Los Angeles ranks second in the amount of Imperial Valley cantaloupes used, New York being first and Chicago third. The season for the Imperial melons is expected to be practically over in two or three weeks. A limited quantity of local ones are now received and will probably continue to come in for a while after the water crop is no longer available. Receipts of cantaloupes are large for this time, and the market appears to be somewhat weak. This may be due to the fact that the demand is not as large as usual, owing to the early season. Watermelons are easy.

Three cars of peaches were reported in by one firm. The shipment was made up of Crawford and Foster principally. Several cars of banana came in. The market on this fruit remains about the same. Tragedy and Watson plums were received. A fair shipment of local Satsumas also came in. Green Gage and Burbank plums were in evidence. A car or so of Bartlett pears arrived from the North.

Hell peppers are quite scarce and firm. Chile is a shade higher in spots. Onions are rather dull; it is between seasons for some varieties. Local potatoes are received and are quoted around $1.35 to $1.40 a sack. The market is well supplied with most kinds of green vegetables like corn, tomatoes, cucumbers, etc.

Local ranch eggs were easier yesterday, although no decline in the quoted price was registered. Butter was steady.

AUTO SMASHED BUGGY, GIRL THROWN OUT

Accident on Hickey Fortunately Resulted in Little Injury to Miss Ross

Miss Evelyn Ross, daughter of George W. Ross of 1502 Flower street, was thrown from a buggy yesterday afternoon when an automobile driven by Will Wall struck her rig. Miss Ross was thrown out headfirst onto the street, but fortunately she escaped with but a few slight bruises. Her upper lip was slightly cut.

Miss Ross, driving a buggy, and Wall, driving an automobile, were going in opposite directions on Hickey street. Wall was passing to the left of an ice wagon bound the same way he was going, and he tried to get through between the wagon and the buggy, but failed. One wheel of the buggy was smashed, and the girl was thrown out. Wall gave Miss Ross his card, took her to her destination in his automobile, which was hardly damaged at all, and took charge of the damaged rig.

MISS PEARL TANGLEY

PEARL TANGLEY COMING TO THE BELL THEATER

It cannot be denied that, apart from the merely superficial side, which naturally fascinates the empty headed, the frivolous, or the ignorant, there are aspects of occultism which make a very deep appeal to the more intellectual and spiritual among us, and it is this class that will appreciate the engagement of Mme. Pearl Tangley, seeress, who appears at the Bell Theater all next week.

Miss Tangley will give a special ladies' matinee on Friday afternoon. During the week of Miss Tangley's engagement at the Bell, there will be presented the usual Monday, Tuesday and Saturday changes of pictures, and new vaudeville for Monday and Thursday.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

FACE CHARGE OF GIVING BEER TO GIRL OF 12 YEARS

Three Mexicans Accused of Contributing to the Delinquency of Child

Deputy District Attorney Koepsel has brought high misdemeanor charges against Jose Leon, Jose Maldonado and Francisco Padilla for the reason that they persuaded Amelia Sanchez, a 12-year-old girl, to drink beer, and thus contributed toward her delinquency in that she might be led to lead an immoral and dissolute life. The men will have their preliminary hearings before Justice Cox on Aug. 11.

The three men were arrested for disturbing the peace in a celebration over the discomfiture of Jesus Sanchez, who, coming out of jail, found that the woman he had been living with had fallen in love with Padilla.

Baptista Indignant
John Baptista of Delhi was arrested yesterday on a charge of disturbing the peace. Several neighbors reported that he was on a rampage from drink. This was not the first appearance in the local court on account of disturbances. Baptista protested that he had done no harm and that he was not guilty of the charge. His trial was set for July 29, and his bail at $25. He told Justice Cox that he was going to sell out and leave the county. The justice advised him to stick by his resolution.

For Fighting
Camillo Puga and L. Ledesma, Delhi Mexicans, pleaded guilty to fighting. Puga paid a fine of $15 and Ledesma went to jail because he did not have $5.

RAILROAD MEN FIRED

NEW YORK, July 19.—Following out a policy that was proclaimed immediately after the fatal wreck at Stamford, recently the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad has dropped from its payrolls a number of men who failed to heed warnings that infractions of the company's rules would result in dismissal.

The hardest blow has fallen on the men employed in the Harlem river yards and the yards at Stamford. The men on whom discipline was visited were confronted with photographs of themselves in saloons, with the testimony of detectives who had followed them and by the records which disclosed their delinquency. They were told that they had been given fair warning and then they were told to get out. The discharged men threaten to appeal to their unions.

Saving Electrical Current
Repeatedly interrupting the current for infinitesimal fractions of time, permitting the filament to cool but not interfering with the light as perceived by the human eye, a French electrician has invented a lamp which he claims uses but one two hundredth of the current of ordinary lamps.

ORANGE, July 19.—Unconfirmed reports are current here that representatives of oil companies have purchased two more pieces of property at Olive. It is stated that the Isaacson place on North Tustin avenue, a short distance from the Standard Oil Co. well, the cause of all the oil excitement in that section, has been sold for $65,000. There are thirty acres on the ranch. It is also reported that ten acres have been sold by A. D. Paxton to oil men for $30,000. The Paxton property is south of El Tovar ranch.

AT THE COURTHOUSE

FATHER OF GIRL PROMISES COURT TO QUIT DRINKING

Articles of Incorporation Are Filed by Mission Town
Store Company

In the juvenile court this morning Judge West ordered that Amelia Sanchez, aged 12, be placed in charge of Jose C. Morales, who lives on East First street near the Santa Fe, the examination concerning the disposal of the girl brought out an example of the loose manner of living of some of the laborers who come to this country from Mexico. Jesus Sanchez recently finished a term in jail for disturbing the peace at Anaheim. While in jail the woman he had been living with for two years left him to live with another man. When the judge asked Sanchez why he had not married the woman, Sanchez replied that he wanted first to find out whether or not she was the right woman for him. He said he drank port wine and beer. The judge told him that he must quit drinking, else the court would take the daughter, to whom Sanchez is much attached, from him. Arrangements were made for the girl to live at the home of J. C. Morales, Sanchez to support her.

Petition Filed
A petition has been filed to terminate the life estate of Timothy Carroll, the sugar beet dump inventor, in real estate at Anaheim. Weisel & Dutton are attorneys for the petitioner.

Articles Filed.
Articles of incorporation have been filed by the Capistrano Commercial Co., owner of a general merchandise store at San Juan Capistrano. Capital stock, $20,000; directors, C. F. von Petersdorff, San Juan Capistrano, and E. D. Elson and W. B. Taylor of Los Angeles.

Under Adversement.
Judge West has taken under advisement the arguments in the contest for the control of the estate of Josephine B. Read. The first petition for articles was filed by Frances R. Kendrick. Then came Joseph Cummins, named in the will as executor. Attorney H. C. Head for Mrs. Kendrick, who is named as administratrix, contended that Cummins had lost his rights by failing to file the will within thirty days after the death of Mrs. Read. The estate is valued at $5000, including real estate at Huntington Beach. Cummins is represented by Attorney J. E. Hanlon of Los Angeles.

GOOD ROADS CONFERENCE AT EUREKA NEXT MONTE

Plans are now being perfected for a conference of unusual interest and character which will be held in Eureka, California, on August 29 and 31. The object of this conference will be the organization of a Pacific Coast Good Roads Association for the promotion and advancement of the cause of good roads in California, Oregon and Washington. Governor Lister of Washington, Governor West of Oregon and Governor Johnson of California will attend the conference, which will be presided over by the first named of these gentlemen. Many other prominent good roads advocates from the three states will also be in attendance.

The proposed conference will present some novel features. Eureka, where it is to be held, is the largest town in the United States without a railroad, and, except in summer months, wholly dependent upon the sea for intercourse with the outside world. Thus, those who attend the conference will make the journey by steamer from San Francisco or Portland, or by automobile from the north, east or south. Many of the delegates, including the directors of the California Development Board and the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, will make the trip by auto from San Francisco northward along the coast. A number of those from the north will turn westward at Grant's Pass, and follow the coast to Eureka. A greater number, however, including the governors of the three states, will journey from Redding across the Coast Range to Eureka. Governor Lister and Governor West will be met at Redding in the morning of August 18 by Governor Johnson and will be the guests at luncheon of the Redding Chamber of Commerce. In the afternoon the journey will be made from Redding to the quaint old town of Weaverville, where, in the evening, a banquet will be given by the local chamber of commerce. In the morning of August 19, the journey will be continued to Eureka, which will be reached early in the evening of that day. This trip will involve 169 miles of travel and will carry the visitors through some of the finest scenery in the west. Ample provision will be made for transportation from Redding to Eureka of all properly accredited delegates.

The conference will open at 10 o'clock in the morning of August 29 and the subjects to be discussed include every important phase of the good roads question. There follow: a partial list of the speakers and the topics with which they will deal: Hon. Ernest Lister, governor of Washington; "The General Necessity of Good Roads;" Hon. Oswald G. West, governor of Oregon; "The Commercial Value of Good Roads;" Hon. Hiram W. Johnson, governor of California; "Should a State Build and Maintain All Roads Within Its Limits?" James D. Bullitt, San Jose; "County and Intercounty Roads;" H. E. Edwards, Weaverville; "The Need of a Highway From Sacramento to the Coast;" M. R. Johnson, San Francisco; "Raising Money for Road Building;" T. H. Martin, Tacoma, and S. G. Andrus, Sacramento; "The Tourist Value of Good Roads;" W. J. Clemons, Portland; and J. A. Marsh, San Francisco; "The Automobile and Good Roads;" Henry L. Bowley, highway engineer of Oregon; "For What Kind of Roads is a County Justified in Issuing Bonds?" Captain J. Rupert Foster, Marysville; "Linking Up the Pacific Coast States;" Hon. W. S. Worden, Klamath Falls, and Robert Newton Lynch, San Francisco; "What Good Roads Mean to the Farmer;" B. F. Lynip, Alturas; "Combined State and County Road Building;" Colonel C. M. Hammond, Upper Lake; "The Care and Upkeep of Roads."

The Eureka Conference is to be held under the auspices of the Promotion and Development Committee of the Humboldt Chamber of Commerce, which will have the aid of the Automobile Club of Humboldt County in the entertainment of the visitors.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
SUPERVISORS
WILL ORDER
BRIDGE PLAN
Anaheim Committee Confident
That Protection District
Will Be Formed

At its meeting next week the Board of Supervisors will probably order plans drawn for a concrete bridge across the Santa Ana river in the Anaheim-Olive road. This bridge will probably cost between $45,000 and $55,000.

The decision of the supervisors to proceed at once with the preparation of plans for the structure comes as a result of reports from Anaheim that there is little doubt but what a protection district will be formed to channel and dike the river at the point where the bridge will be built. The formation of the district was left to a committee of Anaheim citizens, whose report is that the project is meeting with favor.

The bridge will not be built until the district is formed, but the supervisors want to be in a position to commence work on construction immediately after the banks of the river are definitely fixed.

Accident on Road Near Westminster Resulted in Personal Injuries

Huntington Beach News: James McMillan and wife, who reside near this city, were painfully injured Friday evening when a horse, attached to a surrey which they were occupying on their way to Westminster, became frightened by meeting a motor truck at a sharp turn of the road.
The truck was driven by James Haptonstall, an employee of the Lake Transfer Company of this city. He had delivered a load at Garden Grove and was returning with no lights on the truck. He asserts that he expected to make the return trip before dark and so had failed to provide lights. The frightened horse jumped to the side of the road where there is a slight embankment and the surrey was overturned, breaking the shafts and front wheels. McMillan sustained a sprained shoulder and his wife was painfully bruised about the head and body.
